Todd Spaude, V.P. ? IT Architecture & Global Airline Solutions

Todd Spaude is Vice President – IT Architecture and Global Airline Solutions for Delta Air Lines.

In his current role, Todd leads technology development and is responsible for guiding the technology architecture that enables the airline. Previously, he served as Managing Director – Commercial Applications Development and Chief Architect.

Todd's airline industry career began in 1990 with Northwest Airlines, designing and managing applications for Maintenance and Engineering. He has held a variety of IT leadership positions in Airport Operations, Flight Operations, Reservations, project office and infrastructure.

A native Minnesotan, Todd graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College with a bachelor's degree in Chemistry and Biology.

Related Topics

- Todd Spaude
- Leader Bios